NOTES TO THE NOTICE OF THE EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING:

ENTITLEMENT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

- (1) Any person who is a shareholder of the Company on the Record Date (as defined below) is entitled to participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting. Each ordinary share is entitled to one vote.
- (2) The Record Date for determining the right to vote at the Extraordinary General Meeting has been fixed as the close of business on 15 May 2013. Transactions which will be settled after the Record Date will not be considered in determining the right to vote at the Extraordinary General Meeting. According to the relevant Cypriot law provisions the record date should be fixed on the day falling not earlier than 2 business days prior the general meeting. Therefore, the Record Date for determining the right to vote at the Extraordinary General Meeting has been fixed as the close of business on 15 May 2013. Transactions which will be settled after the Record Date will not be considered in determining the right to vote at the Extraordinary General Meeting.
- (3) Any shareholder wishing to participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting should deliver to the Company a depositary certificate or a scan of the depositary certificate issued by a custodian bank or investment firm who maintains the securities account for such shareholder and on which the Company's shares held by such shareholder are registered. The depositary certificate should confirm the number of Company's shares held by the shareholder as the close of business on the Record Date. The depositary certificate or scan of the depositary certificate should be delivered to the Company not later than 5 pm EEST/4 pm CEST 16th May 2013. In practice it means that shareholders of the Company have time starting from 15th May 2013 till 5pm EEST/4 pm CEST 16th May 2013 to ask for depositary certificates and send the scans to the Company and the only feasible way to do it is via email or via fax. The depositary certificate or scan of the depositary certificate delivered to the Company as provided in this point is the sole and conclusive evidence of the right to participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting. Depositary certificates or scans of the depositary certificates delivered after the deadline indicated above will not entitle the shareholder to participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting. The shareholders are advised to contact their investment firm or custodian bank to receive information on formal requirements of, and documents to be submitted to, such investment firm or the custodian bank for the purpose of issuing the depositary certificate.
- (4) Shareholders and/or their proxies who will attend the Extraordinary General Meeting are requested to carry with them their identity card or other proof of identification in order to register on the Extraordinary General Meeting. Shareholders who are corporations are requested to carry a copy of a document confirming authorization of individuals acting on behalf of the corporation.

ATTENDING THE EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING THROUGH PROXIES

- (5) A shareholder is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote on his behalf. Shareholder may appoint any person as their proxy. Such proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company. A shareholder who on the Record Date owned shares in the Company that are registered in more than one securities account may, in respect of the Extraordinary General Meeting, appoint separate proxy holders to exercise its rights under the shares registered in each of the accounts. A proxy holder holding proxies from several shareholders may cast votes differently for each shareholder. Shareholders who appoint a person as a proxy to vote on their behalf, but wish to specify how their votes be cast, should tick the relevant boxes on the Form of Proxy.

- (6) Any company which is a shareholder of the Company on the Record Date may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at the Extraordinary General Meeting, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the company which he represents as that company could exercise if it were an individual shareholder of the Company.
- (7) The instrument appointing a proxy, which is enclosed and has been posted on the Company's website www.kdmshipping.com, must be delivered to the Company not later than 5 pm EEST/4 pm CEST 16th May 2013. In addition, the proxy should present the instrument appoint a proxy in original at the Extraordinary General Meeting.
- (8) If such appointer is a company, the instrument appointing a proxy must bear the name of the company, and be signed by its duly authorised officer/s.
- (9) Each shareholder may cancel a proxy by delivering to the Company a document expressly cancelling the proxy. Such cancellation will be effective if the document is delivered to the Company not later than 6 hours before the time of the Extraordinary General Meeting. The document cancelling the proxy must comply with formalities required of the instrument appointing the proxy. In addition, each shareholder may cancel the proxy in person at the Extraordinary General Meeting.
- (10) The Articles of the Company do not provide for participation in the General Meeting by electronic means without the Shareholder attending the Meeting in person at the place where the Meeting is held. Similarly, the Articles do not provide for participation in voting by distance voting.

VOTING PROCEDURES AT THE EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

- (11) A resolution put to the vote of the Extraordinary General Meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:
 - (a) by the Chairman, or
 - (b) by at least ten shareholders present in person or by proxy, or
 - (c) by any shareholder or shareholders present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having the right to vote at the meeting, or
 - (d) by a shareholder or shareholders holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

- (12) If a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (13) An ordinary resolution is a resolution passed at a general meeting by a simple majority of members of the Company entitled to vote at the meeting who are present in person or by proxy.
- (14) A resolution by a Company shall be a special resolution passed at a general meeting by majority of not less than three-fourths of the number of members of the Company entitled to vote at the meeting who are present in person or by proxy, for which relevant notice has been given pursuant to Article 135 of the Companies Law, Cap 113 specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution.

MINORITY RIGHTS AT THE EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

- (15) Pursuant to article 127B of Companies Law Cap 113, shareholders of the Company have the right to table a draft resolution for inclusion in the agenda of a general meeting provided that:
 - (a) the shareholder or group of shareholders hold at least 5% of the issued share capital of the Company, representing at least 5% of the voting rights of shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting for which an item has been added on the agenda, and
 - (b) the shareholders' request to put an item on the agenda or resolution (as described above) is received by the Company's at least 42 days prior to the meeting. Due to the fact that this term already lapsed and that Company is listed on the Warsaw Stock Exchange, by way of exception from this regulation, the Company will accept shareholders' request to put an item on the agenda or resolution if the Company receive such request no later than 29 April 2013.
- (16) Pursuant to section 128C of the Companies Law Cap. 113, shareholders have a right to ask questions related to items on the agenda and to have such questions answered by the Board of Directors of the Company subject to any reasonable measures the Company may take to ensure the identification of shareholders. An answer is not required if (a) it would interfere unduly with preparation for the meeting or the confidentiality or business interests of the Company or (b) an answer has already been given on the Company's website in the form of a "Q&A" or (c) the Chairman deems that it is undesirable in the interests of good order of the meeting that the question be answered.

Before the Extraordinary General Meeting, shareholders may submit questions to the Company in writing, together with evidence of their shareholding, at least four business days before the meeting (i.e. by 13th May 2013).

LANGUAGES

- (17) The Extraordinary General Meeting will be conducted in English and the resolutions will be adopted in English.

- (18) Any documents delivered or presented to the Company in connection with or at the Extraordinary General Meeting (including the depository certificates) should be in English or should be accompanied by a certified translation into English.
